

Special BCERC Discount For Collaborative Members

Babson Collaborative is excited to partner with the Babson College Entrepreneurship Research Conference (BCERC) to offer exclusive benefits for accepted authors. If your paper is accepted for presentation at BCERC, Collaborative members will receive a 20% discount on registration for BCERC.

This partnership is designed to support entrepreneurship educators and researchers by expanding access to the Babson Collaborative's global network, resources, and opportunities for collaboration.

About BCERC

The Babson College Entrepreneurship Research Conference (BCERC) is one of the world's leading gatherings for entrepreneurship scholars and educators. Each year, it brings together researchers from across the globe to:

- Present and discuss cutting-edge entrepreneurship research
- Network with leading scholars and educators
- Explore innovative teaching and research practices
